On the 6th of August 2016, the Ambience Guesthouse in Udon Thani is opening its doors. The seven modern and well-appointed rooms offer the perfect setting to enjoy Udon Thani with very comfortable living experience at a very reasonable price. The guesthouse is in the neighborhood of a Buddhist temple, in a quiet residential area close to some Thai and Western restaurants. It's only about seven minutes by car to the centre of Udon Thani.

The guest rooms are all equipped with air conditioning, flat screen TV, refrigerator, modern comfortable mattresses, seating and high-quality furniture. All rooms feature a private modern bathroom western style and a small porch. There is Home Cable TV with English, German, French and Thai channels available in all rooms.

Two of the seven guest rooms are also equipped with modern kitchens.

Modern fitness equipment, a hot tub and a sauna are available to house guests, and at the on-site bar you can refresh yourself wonderfully.

Under the tagline 'we are always available for our guests', guests are offered help and advice from the Swiss owner Stephan, and his Thai wife Noi. A shuttle service to the airport, shopping, the city center, to authorities or doctors, excursions, car hire, rental bikes, massages and much more can be organized and planned.

International hospitals, Western style supermarkets, countless attractions and leisure activities, the international airport and, most particularly, the friendly people, all help to provide the ideal conditions for you to live comfortably and cheaply in Udon Thani.

The Ambience Guesthouse is specially adapted to the needs of long-term guests.
